

Résumé

- Since 06/2011 Scholarship holder of the post graduate program „Freunde, Gönner, Getreue“ of University Freiburg
- 20 - 22/09/2010 Participation of the conference „Migrating Ideas of Governance and Bureaucracy in Asia and Europe since the Early Modern Era“ in Peking. Speech on „The Canton System and the Qing Administration“.
- Since 04/2010 Ph.D. student of Prof. Dr. Sabine Dabringhaus, Department of History, University Freiburg. Research theme: Wu Bingjian and his friends. The relations network of a Chinese merchant in the early 19th century.
- 04/2004 - 02/2010 Study at the University Heidelberg, Department of History (1. Major: Medieval and Early Modern History, 2. Major: German as Foreign Language.)
Master paper: “A foreign ideal ruler. The Chinese emperors during the early Enlightenment in Germany”, Referee: Prof. Dr. Thomas Maissen.
- 02/2003 - 02/2004 Study at the Studienkolleg of University Potsdam
- 03/2002 - 01/2003 German language intensive course at the Prolog Language School in Berlin
- 28/02/2002 Arrival in Germany
- 09/2000 - 10/2001 English studies in Guangzhou (Canton), China
(Guangdong University of Foreign Studies, Faculty of English Language and Culture)
- 07/2000: General qualification for university entrance in Zhanjiang, Guangdong Province, P.R. China

Publication:

„The Canton System and the Qing Administration. A window, that didn't want to open?“ In: Richter, Susan (Ed.): Migrating Ideas of Governance and Bureaucracy in Asia and Europe since the Early Modern Era. Springer Verlag Heidelberg: 2011.

Work Experiences:

- 31/08 - 29/10/2010 Practicum in editorial office of the Campus Publishing House (Campus Verlag) in Frankfurt
- 20 - 22/09/2010 Correspondent during the conference „Migrating Ideas of Governance and Bureaucracy in Asia and Europe since the Early Modern Era“ in Peking
- 04/2008 - 08/2010 Research Assistant and translator in Cluster of Excellence „Asia and Europe in a Global Context“, University Heidelberg (Research Project A4: Governance & Administration, The Fascination of Efficiency)